French Civilization

Instructor: Dr. Louise Horowitz
MWF 11:15-12:10 PM
French 360 (50:420:360)

A historical study of the people and culture of France and an examination of French values and attitudes as seen in the literature, arts and institutions of the country. The course will provide background on French history, from the Middle Ages to contemporary France. Most of the course will focus on 20th century politics, government, art and differences between Europe and America at the dawn of the 21st century.

Satisfies the global studies requirement
Taught in French